

Joseph A. Billig, AIA

Director and Vice President of Architecture
Touchmark Development & Construction

As Vice President of Architecture, Joe is responsible for overseeing the design for all Touchmark communities, master planning new sites, developing single-family and multifamily homes, and designing amenity buildings.

Prior to joining Touchmark in 1995, Joe worked for other local builders, developers, and architects as well as designing several custom homes for private clients under his own practice.

Joe attended Cornell University and received a Bachelor of Architecture degree. His design for Touchmark at Mt. Bachelor Village has been recognized by the 50+ Housing Council and Senior Housing Council. He received the 2009 Gold Award for best Independent Living Community (Cliff and Terrace lodges) as well as the 2005 Best of Senior Housing Award—Platinum Award for the River Lodge, Bend, Oregon.

Joe is a member of the American Institute of Architects (AIA) and an Accredited Professional in Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED AP), having demonstrated a thorough understanding of green building practices and principles and the LEED Rating System.

In his free time, Joe enjoys spending time with his wife, raising his two sons, running, and gardening.